

Name:

Class:

IGCSE Reading and Writing 12: Exercise 6

Want to hang out with celebrities? Interested in seeing the world?
Want free tickets to the best music concerts anywhere?

Rage is the new online music magazine for today's global music scene. And we are looking for a few good writers to report on the world of music from hip hop to pop to metal. We cover it all and so will you. You will travel the world interviewing musicians, critiquing new albums and attending music concerts. You'll get to live the rock and roll lifestyle.

If you think you've got what it takes, send us an email telling us about yourself. Be sure to include a 50-word review of your favourite album.

You've seen this advertisement on TV, posters and the internet for weeks now.

Write an email (100–150 words Core tier / 150–200 words Extended tier) to the company.

- Describe yourself.
- Explain why you would be a great music journalist.
- Ask for more information.
- Include a 50-word review of your favourite album in the email.

To:	writers@rage.co.uk
From:
Subject:	I'd make a great music journalist
Review:

IGCSE Reading and Writing 13: Exercise 7

Money can't buy you happiness

Write an article for your school or college magazine giving your views on whether money can bring you happiness or not. The comments below may give you some ideas, but you are free to use your own ideas. Your article should be about 150 words (Core tier) / 200 words (Extended tier) long.

Money does pay for things we like, such as trips to foreign countries.

People who like you for your money are not true friends.

Money isn't bad in itself. It's how you use it that counts.

People can become selfish if they have lots of money.

IGCSE Reading and Writing 14: Exercise 7

'Actions speak louder than words'
when it comes to role models.

Write an article for your school or college magazine giving your views on what makes a good role model. The comments below may give you some ideas, but you are free to use your own ideas. Your article should be about 150 words (Core tier) / 200 words (Extended tier) long.

Many people in power don't practise what they preach.

You can only judge
a person by what they do.

People are human and make mistakes.

Setting examples of good behaviour is the most important thing.